

HardisonInk.com

---

Sheriff candidate jailed by judge; *Christopher Cambron gets five days

By Jeff M. Hardison © July 13, 2016 @ 4:47 p.m.

DIXIE COUNTY -- One of the two candidates for Dixie County sheriff has gone off the rails again, according to records, and this time a judge put the man in jail for contempt of court

Dixie County Sheriff candidate Christopher Cambron has been ordered to serve five days in jail for contempt of court as of a Wednesday (July 13) event, according to records.

Christopher Cambron

Dixie County Sheriff Dewey H. Hatcher Sr. is the incumbent and he is seeking reelection, according to records. Only Cambron and Hatcher are in this race, which will be decided Aug. 30 if Cambron remains qualified and chooses to continue running.

Cambron's criminal and civil cases began in April of this year when he and his wife Brenda Cambron were arrested in regard to their alleged involvement in the purchase of marijuana, according to records. Since that time, both Mr. and Mrs. Cambron have a criminal case pending against them and two other civil cases, one of which involves the Florida Department of Children and Families, according to records.

On April 15, Dixie County Judge Jennifer Ellison was made aware of various video postings on the Internet in which Christopher Cambron made threats of violence against public officials.

Due to these published threats, Judge Ellison entered an order against Christopher Cambron that requires him to contact the Dixie County Sheriff's Office and make arrangements for a security escort into the Dixie County Courthouse whenever he visits the building, according to records.

Today (Wednesday, July 13), Cambron entered the Dixie County Courthouse and went into Courtroom A, where his wife was located, according to records.

At that time, Third Judicial Circuit Court Judge Mark E. Feagle asked whether Christopher Cambron had made the DCSO's bailiffs aware of his presence in the building, according to records.

After Circuit Court Judge Feagle learned that Cambron had failed to follow the court order that had been issued against him, Judge Feagle ordered that Cambron be taken into custody and held for five days for contempt of court, according to records.