

Candidates' Parade

Candidates in five races, which will be decided Aug. 30, participated in the Independence Day Parade at Williston on Friday (July 1). (Please see the story about the parade, more pictures and the video on the Community Page, and more pictures on the Police, Business, Life and Leisure Pages.)

Rep. Charlie Stone (R-Ocala, Dist. 22) rides on the back of an old-fashioned fire engine.

HardisonInk.com

Al Macri (R-Morriston) is the candidate for the District 22 seat in the Florida House of Representatives who is seeking to unseat Rep. Charlie Stone. Macri is seen here driving his pickup truck.

Jeff Edison, a candidate for Levy County Superintendent of Schools, walks in the parade.

~

HardisonInk.com

Jerry Lawrence (left) walks with his wife Kathy. Jerry Lawrence is a candidate in the race for Levy County Superintendent of Schools.

Levy County Commissioner District 5 Danny Stevens hands out fans as he walks along the parade route on Friday.

HardisonInk.com

Matt Brooks (right), who is seeking to become the next Levy County Commission member from District 5, gives a thumbs up sign as he walks the parade route on Friday.

Levy County Commissioner District 1 John Meeks and his wife Stephanie Nettles Meeks walk along the parade route.

HardisonInk.com

Berlon Weeks, candidate for Levy County Commission District 1, walks along the parade route.

Levy County Commissioner District 5 Mike Joyner rides in the parade.

HardisonInk.com

A vehicle with signs for Chetley Breeden, a candidate for Levy County Commission District 5, rides in the parade.

Photos by Jeff M. Hardison July 2, 2016 @ 2:27 p.m., All Rights Reserved