School Leader Welcomed

A reception for Dixie County Superintendent-Elect Mike Thomas on Friday (Nov. 18) in First Baptist Church's Fellowship Hall in Cross City gave family, friends, colleagues and other well-wishers an opportunity to congratulate incoming Superintendent Thomas. Seen above, are the incoming superintendent, his wife Jill Thomas, and their children (in front) Aubrey, Cade (white shirt) and Aaron Thomas. Their son Luke Thomas is not pictured.

The cake and punch that is a very traditional part of such social gatherings was augmented by an impressive assortment of hors d'oeuvres. Among the treats were cheeses, crackers, dip, finger sandwiches and meatballs.

Gumdrops, Crayons and apples were utilized as decorative pieces. The reception was a very pleasant get-together.

Incoming Superintendent Thomas said keeping Jesus Christ as the focus in life will assure any person that issues will be cared for. Thomas said this celebration is not about him, but it is about providing every child in Dixie County with the best possible educational opportunities. He said he looks forward to working with the Dixie County School Board to serve the families. Thomas wants to continue practicing his profession with a servant's heart, he said.
