

HardisonInk.com

WHS homecoming royalty are crowned

2016 Williston High School Homecoming Queen Emily Lowrimore receives her crown from 2015 WHS Homecoming Queen Danielle Floyd.

Story and Photos By Terry Witt Senior Reporter © Nov. 5, 2016 at 6:07 p.m.

WILLISTON -- Williston High School crowned its homecoming royalty at Friday night (Nov. 4) halftime ceremonies.

Homecoming Emily Lowrimore was crowned by 2015 Queen Danielle Floyd. King Britton Hall received his crown from 2015 King Greg Days.

Emily was escorted by her father Steve Lowrimore. She participates in the National Honor Society, FFA and dance classes at Williston School of Dance. She attends First Newly crowned 2016 WHS Homecoming Queen Emily Lowrimore and Homecoming King Britton Hall share their moment in the spotlight.

Baptist Church. After graduation, she plans to earn her AA degree from Santa Fe College and transfer to a four year university.

Britton, escorted by his mother Shannon Hall, has a well-known father at WHS in Baseball Coach Scott Hall. He would like to continue his baseball career. He has been given an offer to play at Florida Southwestern College in Fort Myers He plans to study sports management in college. Britton said his favorite memory from WHS is being part of the 2014 and 2015 back to back State Champion Red Devil baseball team.

HardisonInk.com

Sandra Gonzalez was one of the queen candidates. After high school Sandra would like to attend Santa Fe College to begin her education to become an anesthesiologist. Her favorite part of Williston High School is all the memories she had made over four years.

Dylan Murray was a homecoming king candidate. He plays basketball and football. He said he enjoys the sports programs, the coaching staff and family environment at WMHS. He said the advice he received from Coach Hall – ‘Don’t be anybody but yourself, trust in God and be Dylan Murray – is the best advice he received. He would like to go on to college and study in the medical field and play basketball.

Robbie Sistrunk, also a homecoming king candidate, was escorted by his mother Catrina Sistrunk. Robbie’s extracurricular activities include FFA, varsity football, weightlifting, FBLA, High-Q, National Honor Society, Spanish National Honor Society and class president. He plans to attend the University of Florida’s Warrington College of Business where he will take his first steps toward his ultimate goal of being president of the United States.

The 2016 Williston High School Homecoming Court are pictured. From the left, C.J. Strange, Trinity Tucker, Jarrett Jerrels, Aaliyah DeCoursey, Sandra Gonzalez, Janna Thorrrington, Homecoming Queen Emily Lowrimore, Homecoming King Britton Hall, 2015 Homecoming King Greg Days, 2015 Homecoming Queen Danielle Floyd, Robbie Sistrunk, Dylan Murray, Montrae McCray, and Sherrell Johnson.

Janna Thorrrington was a homecoming queen contestant. She was escorted by her mother Julie Suggs. Janna has not decided on her major when she attends college after graduating from WHS. She is currently a member of FBLA and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She also plays volleyball. Her favorite aspect of Williston Middle High School is the size of the student body. She enjoys the fact that she can get to know her peers and teachers on a personal level.

The freshman attendants were Aaliyah DeCoursey and Jarrett Jerrels. Representing the sophomore class were Trinity Tucker and CJ Strange. Representing the junior class were Sherrell Johnson and Montrae McCray.