U.S. Rep. Ted Yoho And U.S. Rep. Neal Dunn Visit Gilchrist County

Gilchrist County Sheriff's Office Capt. Sheryl Brown is among the first to greet United States House of Representatives Member Neal Dunn (R-02-FL) on Tuesday (Jan. 17) as Dr. Dunn, who is a medical doctor, joined Congressman Ted S. Yoho (R-03-FL) on Yoho's 'Thank You Tour,' in which Yoho visited portions his former congressional district to say 'Thank you' to residents and to recap past accomplishments in those areas. With the new congressional districts drawn, Congressman Dunn now represents the people in Florida's Second Congressional District, which includes Levy, Gilchrist and Dixie counties. The two gentlemen who have offices in Washington, D.C., as well as in their districts of Florida went to The BBQ Shack, 7440 U.S. Highway 19, in Fanning Springs as one of their stopping points. This stop was intended for those that live in Dixie, Levy, and Gilchrist counties. The Barbecue Shack is in Gilchrist County. In the Fanning Springs Area, there are some points in Levy County and some in Gilchrist County. Among the many people other than Gilchrist County Sheriff Robert 'Bobby' Schultz III and some of his teammates on the 'One Team, One Mission' GCSO, Levy County Undersheriff W.O. 'Brett' Beauchamp III, Levy County Veterans Service Officer Robert Lowyns and Inglis Mayor Drinda Merritt visited with the two members of Congress on Tuesday.
