

HardisonInk.com

---

Female employee dies after accident at Walmart

By Jeff M. Hardison © Feb. 23, 2017 at 12:47 p.m.

Updated Feb. 23, 2017 at 5:47 p.m.

CHIEFLAND -- A tragic accident at her worksite claimed the life of a Chiefland woman Wednesday (Feb. 22), according to records.

Sandra Jeanette Quincey, 60, of Chiefland died as a result of injuries she suffered at about 8:22 a.m. at Walmart of Chiefland, 2201 M. Young Blvd., according to information in an incident report by Chiefland Police Department Officer M. Watkins.

When Officer Watkins arrived, she saw Walmart employees standing outside a trailer as would be pulled by a semi. The EMS unit moved Quincey to the back of an ambulance, Watkins said.

Walmart employee Alice Barber, 62, of Chiefland, told Watkins that Quincey was inside the trailer straightening pallets while Barber was on the forklift placing pallets inside the trailer, Watkins said. That is when the victim was injured, according to records.

The EMS unit arrived and took Quincey to Shands Hospital in Gainesville, where Dr. Charles Hwang pronounced her as dead at approximately 9:35 a.m., Watkins said.

“Sandra was an invaluable part of our family and will be missed by many,” Senior Manager of Walmart Corporate Communications Leslee Wright said in an email on Thursday morning. “Her impact on our store was tremendous. Our prayers are with her family and friends.”