FANNING SPRINGS -- Hannah Quincey of Chiefland FFA won the Best of Show plaque and ribbon in the Program Cover Contest.

The first public showing of the winners of Creative Life Skills started at 1 p.m. on Sunday (March 19).

Her winning cover was on display in the Creative Life Skills building on the grounds of the Suwannee River Fair and Livestock Show and sale until the release of those works on Tuesday afternoon (March 21).

Other Shows and Contests for the Creative Life Skills were Clothing, Textiles, Foods, Handicrafts and Photography.

The Show Superintendent was Trisha Barber. She said she was happy to have the Creative Life Skills in a building. That little house-like structure has a new floor, new lighting and new paint.

In the Program Cover Contest, exhibitors designed the front cover of the program by creating a slogan that includes the general theme of the Fair, Suwannee River Fair Grounds, and can be either hand-drawn or computer-generated.

BEST OF SHOW HANDICRAFTS

The Best of Show in Handicrafts was won by Alana Wilkerson of Chiefland.

It was a repurposed sewing machine table. She cut, sanded and covered the cypress wood and attached it to her great grandmother's sewing machine, to create a side table.

BEST OF SHOW TEXTILES

Emily Hallman of Chiefland created a granny square afghan to earn the Best of Show in Textiles.
