

HardisonInk.com

Mackenzie Henderson crowned as Miss Levy County Fair Queen

2017-2018 Miss Levy County Fair Queen Mackenzie Henderson (left) with first runner-up Samantha Ryals (center) and second runner-up Kellie Montes.

Junior Miss
Levy County
Fair Queen
Savannah
Jerrels (center) with first runner-up Hannah
Klemencic (left) and second runner-up
Anna Boyer.

HardisonInk.com

C- Little Miss Levy County Fair Karley Boyer (center) with first runner-up Kelsie Fish (left) and second runner-up Jayden Willoughby.

Story and Photos

By Terry Witt © April 2, 2017 at 9:47 a.m.

Senior Reporter

WILLISTON -- Mackenzie Henderson was crowned as the 2017-18 Levy County Fair Queen on Friday night (March 31).

Mackenzie was asked during the question and answer part of the competition what she would do if she won the crown.

Mackenzie said winning would mean a great deal to her, and she would volunteer in the community and help in any way she could.

The outgoing 2016-17 Miss Levy County Fair Queen Kami McCormick, crowned Mackenzie as a crowd of about 150 enthusiastic pageant supporters watched under a big tent.

The first runner-up was Samantha Ryles. The second runner-up was Kellie Montez. Pageant Director Caela Cuomo presided over all of the pageants.

Miss Tiny Tot for the fair was 5-year-old Skylar Neff, daughter of Samantha Babb and Bryce Neff. Sabri Jones, 4, daughter of Bill and Jennifer Jones was first runner-up and Amylia Rose-Steele, 5, daughter of Elizabeth and Richard Steele was second runner-up.

All of the Miss Tiny Tot contestants were brought back to the stage when the judges could not decide among the three top girls who should be the winner. Skylar was then picked as Miss Tiny Tot.

Austin Glenn Steele, a spirited 2-year-old and son of Elizabeth and Richard Steele was selected as Mr. Tiny Tot. He had a great time on stage smiling and waving at the crowd. Cason Lambert, 4, was picked as first runner-up and David Ortiz, 2, son of David and Yarian Sanchez was second runner-up.

HardisonInk.com

Karley Boyer, 8, of Williston, daughter of Kennedy and Penny Boyer was selected as Little Miss Levy County Fair while Kelsie Fish, 9, of Bronson, daughter of Elizabeth Fish and the late Robert Fish II was selected first runner-up. Jayden Willoughby, daughter of Ronnie and Laura Willoughby was second runner-up.

Savannah Jerrels, 10, a Williston Elementary student and daughter of Sabrena and Doug Mullins and Lint and Jaime Jerrels, was named Junior Miss Levy County Fair. Hannah Klemencic, 11, of Morriston, daughter of Darren and Niurka Klemencic was first runner-up and Anna Boyer, 11, of Williston, daughter of Kennedy and Penny Boyer was second runner-up.

The fair drew a big crowd Friday night. The colorful midway was busy with visitors. A line perhaps 150 feet long stretched from the fair entrance out into the parking lot as people waited for their turn to gain entry.

Miss Tiny Tot Levy County Fair Skylar Neff (center) with first runner-up Sabri Jones (left) and second runner-up Amylia Rose-Steele.

HardisonInk.com

Mr. Tiny Tot Levy County Fair Austin Glenn Steele (center) with first runner-up Cason Lambert (right) and second runner-up David Ortiz.

HardisonInk.com

---

A popular ride at the Levy County Fair known as Vertigo swings thrill-seekers gently around a column of pulsating colors.

Sarah Robinson, Shayla Robinson, 3, and Blakely Robinson, 7 months of Williston enjoy riding the merry-go-round at the Levy County Fair. Sarah and her husband Devin own Red Wing Blueberry Farm outside Williston and are holding the 1st Annual Red White & Blues Festival on May 6-7 at the farm west of Williston. It is a blueberry festival.