

HardisonInk.com

Dog Wash Helps Pets

Critter Crusaders had a great turnout at the dog wash and adoption event held last Saturday (Sept. 23) at a retail outlet in Levy County.

There were 32 dogs that enjoyed their bubble scrub and lots of TLC from the wash and groomer crew. There were 35 applications for the Critter low-cost program filed on this day.

HardisonInk.com

House Of The Happy Cat Rescue joined the event with some really terrific cats seeking homes. Critters provide low-cost spay, neuter and vaccines for residents of the Tri-County Area. Other types of medical needs are provided at a reduced fee. Published Sept. 30, 2017 at 8:07 p.m.

Information and Photos Provided

