Coffee Road Gospel

A message noted in 1 Thessalonians 5:18 (KJV) is 'In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.' For some number of Americans at Thanksgiving, this thought is celebrated with feasting, football and other fun. On Levy County Road 347 between U.S. Alt. 27 and U.S. Highway 19, this thought is shown with a work of hay art. Some motorists know this section of road as 'Coffee Road' because passengers in vehicles along that stretch know better than to attempt to drink hot coffee. (It needs repaving.) Of course, on every road, drivers focus on driving rather than smoking tobacco or other drugs, chewing and spitting tobacco or other drugs, eating or drinking food and beverages, using hands to hold a cell phone and talk, looking at a screen rather than looking at the road in front of them, and at the wildlife or children getting ready to run in front of their vehicle, etc. In any event, Coffee Road Gospel hay art is celebrated here by publication in HardisonInk.com. Give thanks. Give love.
