

HardisonInk.com

Chili Cook-Off Winners

(from left) Tanya McNeil, Christine Badiukiewicz and John Wonsik hold their certificates and cash for third through first place respectively. The Annual Chili Cook-Off at the Yankeetown-Inglis Woman's Club on Saturday Oct. 28th was a great success. There were almost 30 contest entrants and a lot of great chili recipes brought to fruition. The tastiest three were voted in and won a cash prize. John Wonsik won First Place and $50.

Christine Badiukiewicz won Second Place and $25; Tanya McNeil won Third Place and $10. It was a great day full of fun for all. the Chili Cook-Off was in conjunction with the South Levy Market Place, the Elvis Event, the Trunk of Treats and the Halloween Festival!

Published Nov. 2, 2017 at 9:57 p.m.

Photo and Information Provided By Tanya McNeil, Yankeetown-Inglis Woman's Club Publicity Chair

First Shift

Members of the Yankeetown-Inglis Woman's Club who helped at the Annual Chili Cook-Off on Saturday (Oct. 28) were many. This set of six ladies are members of 'The First Shift.' Seen here (from left) are Lisa Crawley, Eleanor Snyder, Susan Edwards, Chairwoman of the Chili Committee Sandy Case, Sue Snook and Marty Hilliard. The Annual Chili Cook-Off at the Yankeetown-Inglis Woman's Club was held at a new location -- the Inglis Community Center. It was a resounding success as it is every year.

Photo by Jeff M.
Hardison © Oct. 31,
2017 at 10:07 a.m.

