Flea Market Hover Over

<https://youtu.be/5uV3OKxPFCY>

This narrated three-minute hover-over at the Chiefland Farmers Flea Market in Chiefland on Saturday (Nov. 7) shows one part of an extensive outdoor set of vendors. Under the roof of the flea market, there are scores of vendors too. At the end of the video, aerial system operator Jeff M. Hardison and Sonny Griffeth, who owns the flea market with his wife Lydia are seen looking up at the flying camera, which is also known as a drone or a quadcopter and is nicknamed The Dragonfly (although it is really a 2017 DJI Mavic).
