OCALA -- Holly McGlashan has been named provost of the College of Central Florida Jack Wilkinson Levy Campus effective Jan. 16.

“We are pleased to share that Holly McGlashan will continue to serve Levy County as the new provost of the Levy Campus,” said Dr. Vernon Lawter, vice president of Regional Campuses. “Holly has worked directly with students and the community for many years and helped transition CF from the Levy Center to our new Levy Campus. She is well qualified for this position. It’s also satisfying when we are able to promote from within our ranks at the college.”

McGlashan has served CF since 2010, most recently as campus manager at the Jack Wilkinson Levy Campus. She has served as the director of Adult Education since 2012. Prior to her position as campus manager, she was manager of Instructional Services at the Levy Campus. She continues to teach credit and noncredit courses. Previous experience includes a career as a behavioral therapist and case manager in Lake City and Gainesville.

She has a Bachelor of Science in Sociology from Florida Southern College, a Master of Science in Sociology with a specialization in Marriage and Family Therapy from Valdosta State University, and is currently a doctoral candidate in Higher Education Administration at the University of Florida.

McGlashan is a member of the Suwannee Valley Rotary Club, Chiefland Chamber of Commerce, and serves on the Haven Hospice Community Advisory Board.

McGlashan's predecessor and colleague is Dr. Rayanne Giddis.

Dr. Giddis served as the provost for Jack Wilkinson Levy Center College of Central Florida, and as the Levy Center provost before that from March of 2016 until Jan. 16. Giddis was the Dean of CF Academic Foundations from November of 2009 until Feb. 2016.

Giddis was the director of the CF Levy Center from May of 1998 until November of 2009 as well.

Prior to that, she was a graduate research assistant at the University of Florida from March of 1996 until April of 1998. Giddis earned her doctorate in higher education from UF from 1996 to 2003.
