CHIEFLAND -- CareerSource Citrus Levy Marion has moved its Levy County Career Center to better serve businesses and candidates, and to celebrate, there will be a grand opening and open house on Thursday, Feb. 22.

Formerly located at the Old Post Office, the new center can be found at 2175 NW 11th Dr., in the Walmart Supercenter plaza (Suwanee Plaza) off North Young Boulevard/US 98 in Chiefland.

The Open House begins at 9 a.m. and offers the opportunity to meet staff and tour the center. An official ribbon cutting by the Chiefland Chamber of Commerce takes place at noon, followed by light refreshments. High School seniors, who have been working with CareerSource CLM staff on resumes, are invited to stop by any time from 4-6 p.m. to learn more about hire education options; those dropping off resumes will be eligible to win a Chromebook, Echo of Echo Dot.

“We look forward to welcoming the community to our new center,” said Cindy LeCouris, career center manager. “Our former location served us well but was somewhat off the beaten path. The new location is easy to find and smack dab in the center of a very busy plaza.”

CareerSource CLM is the local, business-led nonprofit organization that offers fee-free services connecting businesses with qualified, skilled talent and candidates with employment and career development opportunities. Last fiscal year, CareerSource CLM provided services to 26,000 candidates throughout the three-county area and nearly 1,800 businesses.

The Levy County Career Center is open Monday-Friday, except holidays, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
