

HardisonInk.com

---

2-year-old boy is found

(from left) Todd Smith, Jimmy Jones of the Levy County Public Safety Department's EMS, baby Todd Watson, mom June Watson and Paramedic Katy Yanok are seen in the back of a Levy County .

* Published March 17, 2018 at 8:28 p.m. Photo Provided

HardisonInk.com

---

Here is a recent picture with Todd Watson's haircut as it is now.

Photos Provided

By Jeff M. Hardison © March 17, 2018 at 6:38 p.m.

Updated March 17, 2018 at 8:28 p.m.

ROSEWOOD -- A 2-year-old boy who was missing from his home in the Rosewood area for a few hours has been found, according to press releases from the Levy County Sheriff's Office and other sources.

The LCSO issued the notice to be on the lookout for the boy at 3 p.m.

The notice to be on the lookout for Todd Mitchell Watson was issued at 4:21 p.m. on Saturday (March 17) from Levy County Emergency Management via the Code Red Phone Network as well as an email that described the child and how to contact the LCSO.

The notice that he was found was issued via email from the LCSO and via Code Red at 6:09 p.m. on Saturday (March 17) from the Levy County Department of Emergency Management.

Searchers used vehicles in the air and on the land as well as having started a grid search on foot before discovering the young child.

Law enforcement from the Levy County Sheriff's Office, the Florida Department of Corrections Cross City K-9 and the Citrus County Sheriff's Office Aviation Unit and approximately 150 volunteers searched the wooded area near the child's home located at 9730 S.W. 67 Street in Rosewood, the LCSO said.

Todd Mitchell Watson, 2, was found safe and is currently being evaluated by EMS.

The LCSO and Sheriff Bobby McCallum offer their sincere thanks to all of the volunteers who expended their time and extraordinary efforts to make this a successful community effort, LCSO Lt. Tummond noted in an email.