

HardisonInk.com

Cats Pick A Winner

Seen here, Needles the community cat, is in training for the contest to happen in April.

These pictures were taken Thursday afternoon (March 22). His name is Needles in honor of the pine needles into which he can disappear. He is a community cat in the unrecorded subdivision of Levy County that is named Jemlands. In the April contest, the prize is going to be $50 cash awarded from HardisonInk.com. This competition is named The Earth Cat Magic Win Contest. Needles has not participated yet in the selection of winners of various contests of the daily news website during the previous eight years. Photos by Jeff M. Hardison © March 23, 2018 at 10:08 a.m.

HardisonInk.com

 LaQuanda Latson accepts the prize she won. She is seen here in Chiefland. Jeff M. Hardison is presenting the certificate.

Photo by Sharon Hardison © March 23, 2018 at 10:08 a.m.

Published March 23, 2018 at 10:08 a.m.

THE INK PAD -- Shortly before the sun rose on Friday morning (March 23), the process to pick a winner unfolded at The Ink Pad, headquarters for HardisonInk.com.

The two indoor cats Goldy the cat Hardison and Inky the cat Hardison performed their duty. They selected the name of LaQuanda Latson as the winner of the $25 gift certificate to The Putnam Lodge.

This contest is part of the 2018 theme of "Let's Keep It Great At 8," which is the theme for HardisonInk.com as it continues in its eighth year of existence.

<https://youtu.be/1Enj9uj6Gwc>

Jeff M. Hardison narrates the activity Friday morning (March 23) as Goldy the cat Hardison and Inky the cat Hardison choose the winner of the $25 gift certificate to The Putnam Lodge.

Video by Sharon Hardison © March 23, 2018 at 10:08 a.m.

The video shows the action! This story is slated for an update after this evening, when the certificate is presented to the winner. She has been notified of being the winner. The date, time and place is slated for the presentation this evening (Friday, March 23).