

HardisonInk.com

Fallen Officers Honored

On Tuesday (May 15), the Williston Police Department and Levy County Sheriff's Office conducted a memorial service to recognize the WPD officer and LCSO deputy who died in the line of duty over the past several decades. In the top photo (from left) are Levy County Sheriff Bobb McCollum, County Commissioner Mike Joyner, WPD Chief Dennis Strow, WPD Administrative Assistant Brooke Willis, County Judge Tim Browning and WPD Chaplain the Rev. Charlz Caulwell.

WPD Chief Dennis Strow provided the opening remarks. Williston City Council Vice President Marguerite Robinson led the Pledge of Allegiance. WPD Chaplain the Rev. Charlz Caulwell gave the invocation. WPD

Administrative Assistant Brooke Willis spoke about WPD Cpl. David W. Moss, who died in the line of duty on July 30, 1988. Levy County Sheriff Bobby McCollum spoke about LCSO Deputy A. Hagood Ellzey. Levy County Judge Tim Browning was the keynote speaker.

HardisonInk.com

---

Chief Dennis Strow

Brooke Willis

HardisonInk.com

---

Judge Tim Browning

Closing remarks were by Sheriff McCallum. Taps was performed by Glenn Robinson with Carolyn McLain singing Amazing Grace. Levy County Commissioner Mike Joyner, a retired law enforcement officer, provided the dismissal.

Published May 19, 2018 at 8:08 a.m.

Photos Courtesy of Brooke Willis