

HardisonInk.com

Tammy Jones takes oath of office as president-elect of the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections

Seen here are (from left) Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections President Paul Lux, Okaloosa County; President-Elect Tammy Jones, Levy County; Vice President Craig Latimer, Hillsborough County; Secretary Wesley Wilcox, Marion County; Treasurer Mark Earley, Leon County; Past-President Dana Southerland, Taylor County; and Florida Secretary of State Ken Detzner. The secretary of state in Florida is the head of the Division of Elections for the state.

Information and Photos Provided
Published June 5, 2018 at 10:18 p.m.

FORT LAUDERDALE -- Levy County Supervisor of Elections Tammy Jones took the oath of office as president-elect of the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections on May 23.

HardisonInk.com

Levy County Supervisor of Elections Tammy Jones

Florida Secretary of State Ken Detzner administered the swearing-in ceremony during the association's conference in Fort Lauderdale.

The Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections is made up of supervisors of elections from all 67 counties of Florida

Levy County Supervisor of Elections Jones was elected by her peers to represent the association as their president-elect for one year.

As part of her duties, Jones will assist association President Paul Lux (supervisor of elections of Okaloosa County) with duties relating to the association.

Jones has made it her goal to be an active participant with the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections.

"I consider it a great honor and privilege to serve as the Association's president-elect, and to also represent Levy County," Jones said