WPD Adds K-9 Unit

These photos taken by trainers at the Marion County Sheriff's Office and provided by Williston Police Chief Dennis Strow show Shadow the dual-certified K-9 officer and his handler WPD Officer Rich Peters. This dog is ready to track fugitives, sniff out hidden drugs and perform other duties as a law enforcement officer that happens to have four feet and fur.

Chief Strow mentioned the thousands of dollars in training and equipment to bring Shadow and Officer Peters into action. Zero of those dollars for training and equipment, however, came from the city coffers. More details about this great dog, his handler and funding for Shadow is anticipated to be published in HardisonInk.com in the relatively near future. Published March 4, 2019 at 10:49 a.m.
