

HardisonInk.com

Renegade Rodeo hosts Chiefland FFA Alumni Event

Cole Carter starts a bull ride.

Photos and Video
By C.L. Watson © May 13, 2019 at 4:09 p.m.

LEVY COUNTY -- The Renegade Rodeo recently hosted Chiefland FFA Alumni annual event. This year there was barrel racing as well as bull riding during the two-evening event at Carter's Crossroads Arena – near the intersection of State Road 345 and Levy County Road 347.

A young fashionable cowgirl rides her pony before the Chiefland FFA Alumni & Renegade Rodeo's Bulls & Barrels event.

HardisonInk.com

---

Sophie, the granddaughter of Barbie Higginbotham, came from Dixie County to enjoy watching a night of barrel racing and bull riding.

The Renegade Rodeo and FFA flag corps waits for the show to start. Eugene Carter III is on the horse in the foreground in the photo. Dixie Lee Carter is holding the Florida state flag. Other riders are holding the American flag and FFA flag.

HardisonInk.com

---

https://youtu.be/qht4z\_H12ks

In this video, Cole Carter stays on a bull but not for eight seconds, which is the minimum to score points. Bull riders accumulated points over the two-day event. Bulls also score points. On another ride he lasted longer, for six seconds.

Brooke Matthews makes a turn in one of the barrel races.