

HardisonInk.com

Hospital closes

The parking lot was empty and the front door was locked Thursday (July 25) at Regional General Hospital of Williston.

Story and Photo

By Jeff M. Hardison © July 26, 2019 at 2:49 p.m.

CHIEFLAND – Regional General Hospital of Williston, 125 S.W. Seventh St., Williston, is closed.

The front door was locked and the parking lot was empty Thursday (July 25).

Jorge Lopez was the most recent of a number of owners during the past 14 years. Like at least the previous two owners, Lopez invested millions of dollars in equipment and to cover payroll. There were not enough patients who paid for services and RGH has proved to be an unsustainable venture, so far.