Early voting in this county goes through Aug. 20.

Early voting on those dates in Levy County is from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., including weekends, at the Levy County Supervisor of Elections Office, 421 S. Court St., in Bronson. Voters may enter at the side entrance of the Supervisor of Elections Office.

Voters should bring a current and valid photo and signature identification. If no ID is provided, a provisional ballot will be issued.

Levy County Supervisor of Elections Jones and her staff have made the early voting process easy. People who use the Mail-In method in Levy County also will see convenience.

During early voting, the Levy County Supervisor of Elections Office is offering two "Secure Mail Ballot Intake Stations" at the Chiefland and Williston public libraries.

These library intake stations are for voters that need to return their vote-by-mail ballots. Employees of the Levy County Supervisor of Elections Office man these stations. Ballots are secured and picked up daily. The intake stations for mail-in ballots are available during the same days and hours as Early Voting.

In addition, voters can return their vote-by-mail ballot at the Supervisor of Elections Office during business hours from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

As always there will be an intake station at the side entrance of the Levy County Supervisor of Elections Office during early voting days and hours. Early Voting and Vote-by-Mail turnout results, by precinct and party, are available on the Supervisor of Elections website at <https://www.votelevy.gov/>.
